

How Great Is Your God? (Psalm 145)

Praise to God Is Infinite and Influential - Ps 145:1-7

- Infinite because it is the language of an eternal kingdom - Ps 145:1-2

...it is to be continuous - Ps 145:2

...it is to be intelligent - Ps 145:5

...it is to be personal - Ps 145:1

- Influential because of its affects...

...upon our own life - Ps 145:8,9,14

...upon the lives of others - Ps 145:5,6,7

The Cause for Such Joyful Praise - a "Great God" - Ps 145:3

- He is great in His salvation - Ps 145:19; II Pet 3:9; Ro 10:15; I Tim 2:4

...from: _____

...for: _____

...great in His lovingkindness - Ps 145:8; Eph 2:1-4; Jo 3:16

(A great God is the source of great relief!)

- He is great in His sovereignty - Ps 145:13; I Tim 6:15

...the King of a kingdom that is spiritual (Jo 18:36) and eternal (Ro 8:18; II Cor 4:17)

...the character of the king behind all this power is righteous and good - Ps 145:17, 9; 119:91

(A great God is the source of great assurance!)

- He is great in His supply - Ps 145:14-16

...He delivers "food" for the famished - Ps 145:15; 19; Jo 6:35

...He delivers "help" for the hurting - Ps 145:14; Matt 11:28-29; Matt 6:35

...He alone can satisfy our deepest needs - Ps 145:16

(A great God is the source of great contentment!)
